Dear Families,

It has been another exciting week at Holbrook.

Year 3 thoroughly enjoyed their trip to Fishbourne Roman palace on Monday. They spent time in the museum looking at artefacts and mosaics and exploring the gardens. The children learnt how to be a Roman and played Roman games.

Bears class have been developing their growing area and have been excited to plant their beans to see how tall they grow and whether they will find a giant at the top!

As you may know, April is the official month of the Military child. This is a time where, as a federation, we recognise and share the unique experiences that military children and their families encounter and show the appreciation they deserve. We shared an afternoon tea with our forces families, the children decorated biscuits and spent time with their families sharing activities. With thanks to Mrs Dawkins for making this a great success.

Thank you to all who came and purchased books this week at our book fair. Its so nice to see so many children share their passion and joy of reading. Our library is open every lunchtime and the children enjoy having a quiet space to read and share books.

We would like to say farewell to Mrs Dexter-Hall who sadly leaves today and wish her all the very best for the future.

Warm regards, Mrs Golding

Understanding Consent: What It Means for Children and Young People

Last year, this photo made headlines and brought consent to the forefront. Consent is giving your agreement freely, after fully understanding what you're agreeing to. It's important for children to understand what this means for them, how to ensure they have consent from others, and how to say no if they feel uneasy.
